Description

The system confirmed the incorrectly entered contact information.

While updating the contact information on the site, I used numbers and special signs in the surname section and the site approved it. It did not give error information.

Steps to Reproduce:

1. I went to the Parabank site
2. I logged in on the site.
3. I entered the contact information update section
4. I wrote special signs and numbers in the surname part
5. The site sent me a message confirming what I wrote.

Expected Result:

I should have received an error report with the expected result.

Actual Result:

Although I entered incorrect and incorrect information, I did not receive an error report. I received a confirmation message

Impact:

1. Very important vulnerability
2. Registration of wrong people in the system
3. Allows transfer of information and money to other names
